TRADITION KEPT ALIVE AT THE CREATIS BOWL-O-RAMA!

Employees come together to celebrate the company's annual bowling event

(Minneapolis – St. Paul) Every October when the air becomes crisp, the leaves are falling and pumpkins are being carved, Creatis employees excitedly anticipate the long awaited event of the year — the famed Bowl-O-Rama!

Employee Sarah Skowronsky, currently on assignment with Target, said of the event, "I had a blast and really enjoyed meeting fellow Creatis contractors and getting to hang out with you all! I look forward to our next networking event!" Alice Helmeke, a Creatis employee at Medtronic, said, "It was a blast! I had so much fun!!!"

By means of the Odyssey Guild, the fraternal, tongue-in-cheek fellowship formed at the birth of the company, Creatis finds value in providing opportunities for its members to build relationships with one another and maintain time-honored traditions.

On October 29, 2009, whimsically costumed employees gathered at Bryant Lake Bowl in Uptown–Minneapolis to celebrate their long-held tradition of bowling, food and festivities! As teams bowled to their heart's content, President Chuck Swensson challenged Creatis members to impromptu dares and charades for cash prizes in "Two Buck Chuck". Employees also were awarded gift cards for Highest and Lowest Bowling Score, Best Female and Male Costume and Best Creatis-Themed Costume.
