Local Art Finds a Home at Creatis

Seeing the world from a different perspective

(Minneapolis – St. Paul) Curator Ken Herren from Your Art's Desire Gallery of Art & Framing provided a new installment of artwork from local artist Carla Holmquist.

As if looking at the earth from space, Carla's work is a depiction of regional topography, each piece originating from a specific latitude and longitude. Aerial and orbital photographs provided the inspiration for the landscapes. She uses acrylic and watercolor on a metal canvas to produce textures, patterns and movement that create organic imagery. The original pieces for sale are finished in custom, hand hewn frames by a cabinetry craftsman. Most of the paintings hanging on Creatis' walls are also offered as limited edition prints.

Your Art's Desire is helping artists gain exposure for their artwork by curating the walls of local businesses. Visit the Creatis office to take in these amazing pieces.
